Neutralisation of MTI

CALL LAB :-

Introduction:-

The English we use to communicate is developed to the extent that we can express our thoughts & successfully convey a general idea. To make our English more effective however requires a focused effort to overcome regional differences.

Different Areas of Indian Speakers:-

- 1) Most Indians speakers replace /v/ by /f/ in the word "of"
- 2) Some assumes and Bengali speakers replace /v/ by /b/
Eg:- vote - boat, vile - bile, veil - bail.

- 3> Some assumes speakers use /t/ & /d/ instead of /θ/ and /ð/. eg:- line-thin, take-thank, den-then.
- 4> Many Indian speaker use instead of /z/ causing the confusion between pairs like aged-raised, Tew-zoo.
- 5> Some Indian speakers drop initial /y/ in words like year, years etc which should be avoided.
- 6> Many Indian speakers use /s/ instead of /z/ in inflexional suffixes. Eg:- false-falls, ice-eyes.
- 7> Some Indian speakers drop media /y/ in words like stupid, student, sure etc. This should be avoided.
- 8> Some Indian speakers also drop /w/ in words like word, won't, wood, quote etc while articulating /w/. This lips can be sounded.

Tips to Achieve Neutralization of accent:-

- Get familiar with the sounds of English and learn about the International phonetics Alphabet.
- Do jaw exercises to modulate your voice and accent.
- Practice translates into perfect, study how to make out sounds.
- Nothing beats a live show. They are amazingly chances to mingle with English speakers.
- Diction is another important aspect of developing a neutral accent.
- Listening to news channels is another effective way to get neutral accent.
- Increase your recording ability by going through newspapers and magazines.
- Read dictionary to learn the meaning of the words spelling and pronunciation.
